Mother o' Mine!

If I were hanged on the highest hill,
Mother o' Mine, O mother o' mine!
I know whose love would follow me still,
Mother o' mine, O mother o' mine!

If I were drowned in the deepest sea,
Mother o' mine, O mother o' mine!
I know whose tears would come down to me,
Mother o' mine, O mother o' mine!

If I were damned of body and soul,
Mother o' mine, O mother o' mine!
I know whose prayers would make me whole,
Mother o' mine, O mother o' mine!

—Rudyard Kipling.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

After reconsideration of postponement of its charity concert, announcement of which was made yesterday by the Hyeccha club, the committee in charge of arrangements has decided to give the program at a later date. The program will be held following the high school and Kendall commencement exercises and other entertainment.

engagements which are claiming attention during the next few weeks. Definite announcement of the date and place will be made later.

The next dance of the Barquette club is announced for Tuesday, May 23.

LUNCHEONS

Miss Lucille Leonard, who has been announced as a bride-elect of early June, and her guest, Miss Marthine Winger of Springfield, Ohio, shared in honors of the beautiful luncheon company with which Mrs. R. O. McClellan, Mrs. John J. Black and Miss Nancy Younkman entertained yesterday afternoon in Mrs. McClellan's home.

The dining table, which had covers for twelve, including the bride-to-be, her mother and visitor, was handsomely decorated in new effect, the centerpiece being formed on a mahogany base. Spring flowers in the love colors, with a note of pink predominating, bluebirds and butterflies were combined in charming effect. The smaller tables, at which the remainder of the company was seated, there being covers for 24 in all, held decorations of spring flowers. Bird and butterfly cards marked the covers of the guests while Miss Leonard's chair was done in pink tulle bows of satin ribbon.

Luncheon was followed by a shower of kitchen utensils for the home of the bride-to-be. Matrons and girls of the party were Mesdames O. H. Leonard, Frank G. McClellan, Grant C. Stebbins, Allen L. Braymer, Younkman, John P. Black, Wallace Carney, Jay Painter, Stewart Pearce, C. J. Callahan, Rex S. Walker, Stanley F. Hisey, Ralph M. Darnell, Misses Bethel Dean Cone, Ethel Carter, Hazel Mook, Helen Carter, Marion Harmon and Irene Delaney.

Social activities in courtesy to visiting women to the Oklahoma Press association were continued yesterday with a large and very delightful luncheon of the company arranged by women of the local committee at Hotel Tulsa.

Informal reception of the visitors was made on the mezzanine floor after which the company descended to the private dining room, which was the setting for this gathering of women of the press, and the affair was without doubt the most pleasant among the things social incident to the convention. Ten tables each having places for ten guests were decorated in flowers which were a gift of the Sand Springs Park Floral, Tulsa and Henry greenhouses and Mrs. De Haven's flower shop. The covers were marked with press souvenirs. Among the wives of men prominent in newspaper circles of the state present were Mrs. Eugene Kerr, Muskogee; Mrs. Leslie Niblack, Guthrie; Mrs. Sidney Sikes, Ardmore; Mrs. H. E. Cates and Mrs. W. C. Cates, Claremore; Mrs. Feunquay, Chandler; Mrs. H. E. Hardy, Tahlequah; Mrs. R. L. Stewart, Jennings, and Mrs. Fred W. Holt, New Orleans.

Mrs. Howard N. Cole had as her guests for a delightful luncheon party on Friday the members of Jane Addams Chautauqua circle. Five tables, each having an attractive floral centerpiece, had been set for the guests and a menu of several courses was served.

It was the time for annual election of officers and immediately after the serving the circle proceeded to this business, which resulted in Mrs. Cole being chosen president; Mrs. H. O. McClure, vice president; Mrs. J. Bennett Porter, secretary; Mrs. William Miller, treasurer; Mrs. D. W. Crouch, critic; Mrs. Charles L. Hall, parliamentarian; Mrs. Roy Mook, journalist.

Following the election, Mrs. John Thordahl of Oklahoma City, who was the guest of Mrs. William N. Sill during the State Press meeting, addressed the members on "The Educational Loan Fund," a subject in which the Jane Addams circle is greatly interested. Next week's meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Hiram Porter.

DANCES

Men of the Bonanza club were hosts of a subscription dance, which was a delightful affair of Friday evening in the younger set. The Hotel Tulsa orchestra played.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph House, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Galer and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Dawson were chaperons of the following young-folk: Misses Alling, Jamestown, N. Y.; Caroline Colson, Oklahoma City; Tangle, Memphis, Tenn.; Mary Smith, Sapulpa; Mary Cannon, Rhea Walker, Rosie Marie Marr, Lois Walker, Ruth Brown, Josephine Nee, Ross Brady, Marie Nye, Clare Medunkin, Mildred Shields, Ethel Walker, Josephine Higgins, Beryl Butler, Irene Campbell, Anna Ingram, Naomi Meserve, Layon Greck, Norma Miller, Edna Nelson, Ross Hudson, Helen Sider, Caroline Duffy, Gladys Cusack, Edith Lynn, Ruth Whitehead, Wilma Aspin, Messers Herbert Smith, Harry Crooks, Floyd Lewis, Kirtie Webb, Joseph Carson, Paul Reid, Guy Johnson, James Parker, John Bates, Sharrer, Eugene Rupp, Dan Hunt, Mack Rupp, Francis Lewis, Thomas Hunt, John Cowden, Waldo Lysterland, Jack McMurray, Frank Dillard, Robert Anderson, Harry Campbell, Robert Galbreath, Eugene Braden, Sidney Roberts, Roger Mitchell, Ray Stebbins, Joseph Shallenberger, Hawley Stafford, Homer H. ## TULSA WOMAN MEETING WITH SUCCESS IN MUSIC —Portrait by De Guelde.

Mrs. Frost, assistant teacher in the department of voice of Kendall college, is spending several months in special study with Charles W. Clark of Chicago, for fifteen years a leading tutor of Paris. Mrs. Frost is specializing in coaching opera, public school music and other branches, which will make the course of study offered by Kendall particularly attractive. She is filling many important choir engagements and during the summer months will assist in one of the Chicago conservatories. Mrs. Frost will receive her degree in June.

DINNERS

In pretty honor to Mr. Harry Ross' birthday anniversary, Mrs. Ross entertained a company of their close friends at dinner Friday evening. The decorations and the birthday cake was mounted by the proper number of red candles. Covers were laid for ten.

Later in the evening a score of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ross went in for an hour of dancing. Guests of the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Matoney, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Roney, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted T. Wells entertained informally at dinner Friday evening in the Brad's hotel Mr. and Mrs. A. Miller Hammett, Mrs. Roy Blythe of Moberly, Mo., and Mrs. Belle Baldwin.

Mrs. Raymond H. Siegfried will entertain with a dinner today complimentary to Miss Mayme Hillhouse, a bride-elect of June. Covers will be laid for six guests.

Mr. J. W. Bate entertained with a dinner party Thursday evening at Hotel Tulsa, having a dozen maids and men of younger society as guests.

INFORMAL

The second of Miss Mary Stewart's pre-nuptial parties had Miss Rees Hudson as hostess Thursday afternoon, entertaining with a matinee party to the theater in the bride-elect's honor.

An hour having been enjoyed at the theater, the party repaired to the Hudson home, 311 West Sixth street, where refreshments were served. Then followed a delightful surprise for the bride-elect in the way of a shower of linens for the home over which she is soon to preside. A huge wedding bell in pink and white, suspended over the dining table, held the many lovely gifts, which were expressions of regard from the friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lair Parris entertained with a delightful informal evening party Wednesday in honor of the occasion of their third wedding anniversary.

A company of about a dozen married and young folk were invited for an evening of music and the serving of refreshments. Many beautiful flowers, some of which were gifts to Mrs. Parris in honor of the day, decorated the room into which Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Casebeer, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Spillers, Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt T. Caspary, Miss Byrd and Mr. Charles W. Bliss were gathered as guests of the happy affair.

MUSICAL

Miss Esther Dove Gravitt, a pupil of the department of oratory and expression of Kendall college, will be presented in her graduation recital by Miss Margaret Wyndham, head of the department, Thursday evening, May 18, at the college auditorium. Miss Gravitt will be assisted by Mr. Fernand DeGuelde, tenor, with Miss Marian Deuel accompanying. The program:

George Washington Jones, Part I.
..... Ruth McEnery Stuart
Bergere Legere ..... Weckerlin
Collette ..... Alary
L'Heure Exquisite ..... Hahn
Obstinat ..... Fontaineille
Mr. DeGuelde.

Last Thursday evening at Kendall college Miss Marian Louise Deuel of the senior piano class was presented in recital by her instructor, Prof. John Knowles Weaver.
Miss Deuel has lived in Tulsa only since last summer, but already by her gift as an accompanist has she become a necessary adjunct in our city's musical circles, and is regarded as a young musician of unusual promise and versatile talents. Just recently she accompanied the noted Chicago soprano, Miss Lucille Stevenson, at the the finale from Schumann's Symphonic Etudes, which consists of massive chord harmonies and was played with a breadth and depth of conception in keeping with the lofty spirit of the whole work. Dexterity and lightness were evinced in the second number, "Spinning Song," by Raff, and concluding the group Holander's March was given a stirring rendition, with clearly defined martial rhythm and orchestral coloring. For her second group Miss Deuel played two numbers, first being the greatest of all piano cradle songs, Chopin's Berceuse; this number is considered the property of the virtuoso and seldom does it appear on a pupil's program. However, Miss Deuel proved her right to include it in her repertoire, as her musicianship and technique are equal to the demands of this difficult number, and her interpretation wholly enjoyable. The next number, Liszt's Hungarian Rhapsodie No. 11, was given a rousing performance, thrilling the hearer with its wild effluence of color and the excitement of race and motion. Last but not least, in importance came Capriccio Brilliant by Mendelssohn. In this Miss Deuel showed the possession of a remarkable touch, the many scale passages were all clear cut, splendid and well-planned climaxes, making altogether a most brilliant rendition. As in the previous recitals, the orchestra, part of the ensemble work was given on the pipe organ by Mr. Weaver.

Splendid assistance was given on this program by Miss Edith Williams, violinist, and a young artist pupil of Miss Myra Cowell. Miss Williams played Svendsen's Romance and Chanson Polonoise, Mazurka by Wieniawski, and in her rendition of these numbers one could readily understand why the violin prize at the Norman contest was captured by this fair Tulsa maid.

Mother's day will be observed with music appropriate to the occasion, the programs for morning and evening to be sung under the direction of Professor Robert Boice Carson and with Miss Lynette Kimmons at the organ at First Presbyterian church. The numbers:

MORNING.

May-Time Pump and Boot Modes Emphasized in Present Collection of Smart Styles—

The assemblage of ideal styles at "Hunt's" this season far surpasses any previous attempt at variety.

The feminine contingent more so than ever, realize how important is the part played by correct and well-fitting footwear in the art of proper dress.

Fashion demands that makers produce a greater diversity of styles, and so we get them, one fast on the heels of the other. Hence, milady, especially, shows a greater desire to make several changes during the length of a season.
